Menu Highlights

Our pressure fried chicken and pizza take about half an hour to prepare. Some items are ready to serve and may take only a few minutes, depending on how busy we are. We normally serve baby red potatoes as they are ready.

Our kitchen prepares all meals in the order in which they are received. Often your order can be served faster if the item is prepared beforehand, rotisserie chicken for example.

We have three kinds of Bar-B-Que pork ribs. Pork spare ribs are smoked with our spice and served with bar-b-que sauce on the side. The country ribs are smoked with our spice, then baked in bar-b-que sauce until fork tender. The back ribs are the Cadillac of ribs.

Lean, meaty and tender, cut from the pork chop and smoked in our special sauce and spices.

We are happy to make substitutions, however, some items cost us more, so we have to charge a little more.
